

Penobscot Valley Spring Camporee

ARE YOU SCOUT ENOUGH?

The best weekend in the history of 2007!

- You'll compete with other Troops to prove your worth.
- Challenges Include:
 - Amazing Survivor
 - Cast Iron Chef
 - Katahdin Idol

What the Challenges are:

- Amazing Survivor -Barebones camping competitions to challenge you on the Trail of Scout hood. Be prepared for a twist halfway through.
- Cast Iron Chef -
A cooking contest like no other. There will be a secret ingredient you will need to use. This will place your Troop's best cooks against Scouts from around the state to see who has the best skills in the kitchen.
- Katahdin Idol -
Show off your talent by performing a new and original skit or song. No skits seen at camp will be permitted.

Why come?

- Why not
- To prove your Troop is the best at its skills.
- To see the famous FIRE ISLAND, and compete for the highest award earned on it.
- Be there or miss the fun.

Boy Scouts of America

Katahdin Area Council

Attn: PV Dist. Camporee

PO Box 1869

Bangor ME 04402-1869

Unit and # _____ Town _____
Unit Leader's Name _____
Address _____ City _____ Zip Code _____
Of Scouts $7.00 = $ _____ $10 for late registration
Of Leaders $7.00 = $ _____
TOTAL ENCLOSED $ _____ Take From Unit Account _____

Mail To: Katahdin Area Council

Attn: PV Dist. Camporee

PO Box 1869

Bangor ME 04402-1869

MUST BE RECEIVED NO LATER THAN: May 1st, 2007

Katahdin Area Council

P.O. Box 1869

Bangor, Maine 04402

Phone: 207-866-2241

Toll Free: 800-353-5888 (Maine only)

Fax 207-866-3283

E-mail: Peppre4@yahoo.com

Or andy@eece.maine.edu

FIRE ISLAND

Northport

May 18th—20th

2007

Boy Scouts of America

Penobscot Valley
Spring Camporee.

Hosted By:

Penobscot Valley Order of the Arrow Chapter

The Fire Island Experience Of Reality Game Shows.